Dear Mr. Talbot,

Perhaps I am the multi-talented teacher you seek in your temporary teacher advertisement in today's New Jersey Daily. I'm a versatile teacher, ready to substitute, if necessary, as early as next week. I have the solid teaching experience you specify as well as the strong organizational and communication skills you desire.

I am presently affiliated with Montessori, a highly regarded private elementary school. The details of your advertisement suggest to me that the position will involve the same responsibilities that I am currently performing.

In addition to the planning and student-parent counseling duties I highlight in my résumé, please note that I have a master's degree as well as a teaching certificate from the state of New York.

If you agree after reviewing my attached résumé that I am the teacher you need, call me at my home number: 404-552-3130.

Thank you most sincerely for your time and consideration.

Cordially,

Maria Smith
